

“TENACITY”

“You Don’t Have to Get Lost In Nepal to Find Yourself, But it Helps!”

Using anecdotes from life experiences, Keith shares how to make tenacity a lifestyle. Building on time honored virtues of resilience and determination he will give your group tried and true ways to over-come workplace stress, life changes, and fear of uncertainty.

Fired thirty-three times in his first 36 months in insurance, taking fourteen years to make podium in bike racing and getting lost in the Himalayas for days gives Keith a unique perspective on building a “life philosophy” that succeeds.

A master storyteller, Vietnam veteran, author of three non-fiction books and four children’s books, Keith also brings years of improv comedy to his speeches.

Your audience will receive humor & motivation as Keith engages them. He can tailor his speech to meet your specific needs, and he’s an excellent brainstorming facilitator adding quality and professionalism to your team and business breakout sessions. Book Keith Today!
